Şalvarağa homes has redefined the definition of luxury with the comfort of living above the standards and the architecture in harmony with the nature of Bodrum. The villa has a very special location; has the views of Kos island and the Bodrum Castle along with the view of the Aegean and every colour tone it reflects

In addition, it is a unique address for homeowners with various transportation alternatives because of being next to a Heliport and the New Port where domestic and international ship and ferry cruises are done.
